RE: Redistricting of the Twenty-Fourth Judicial District

Dear Speakers:

The Henry County Bar Association met in a called meeting on March 8, 2019 in the meeting room of Ann & Dave's Restaurant. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the proposed Redistricting of the Twenty-Fourth Judicial District.

Anthony L. Clark, Esq., President, called the meeting to order. A quorum was present. Vote was held. There was unanimous opposition, one (1) member abstained, to redistricting the Twenty-Fourth Judicial District.

On March 18, 2019, the Henry County Board of Commissioners passed Resolution Number 1-3-19, assembled in regular session, and with a majority or more of the membership concurring, that this Board opposes any redistricting which would reduce the number of judges available to serve the citizens of Henry County.
