ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR REHEARING

The appellant, Willie C. Taylor, has filed a petition requesting a rehearing of the opinion filed in this cause on April 2, 1997. The appellant contends that his sentence was illegal and that his guilty plea should be set aside. In this petition, the appellant now states that the Court failed to consider certain facts included in the record. However, the appellant would have this Court arrive at conclusions and make findings of fact which were not found by the trial court.

We have considered the request and the argument in support of the petition and respectfully disagree. The petition for rehearing is denied.

This the _____ day of _____, 1997.
