IN RE: * STANDING ORDER: 2020-01
COVID-19 PANDEMIC * JUDICIARY SITTING EN BANC

AMENDMENT TO STANDING ORDER REGARDING PRETRIAL DETENTION

It appearing to the Court that the previous Order entered by the undersigned Judges of the Twelfth Judicial District, State of Tennessee, should be amended to further define violent offenses which would not be eligible for Own Recognizance bonds, accordingly, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED:

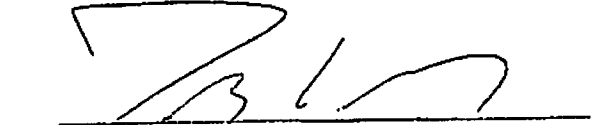

- 1) The last sentence of Schedule A is amended such that it shall read as follows:

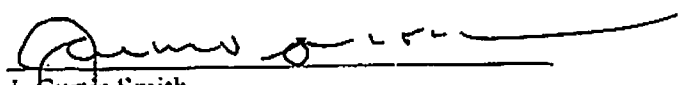

“For purposes of this Schedule, a violent offense would be those offenses against the person set forth in T.C.A. §39-13-101 thru §39-13-533 and those against children as set forth in T.C.A. §39-15-401, 402, aggravated burglary, driving under the influence (second offense or above), and all forms of domestic assault.”

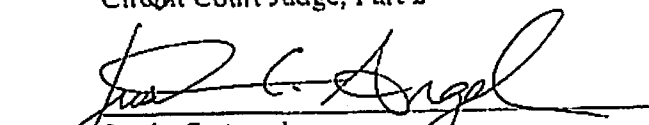

- 2) This Amendment shall take effect immediately; however, it does not affect any persons who have previously been released on OR bond.

ENTER: This 20th day of March, 2020.
