Statewide Appellate and Trial Court Statistics

This section is the statistical portion of the Annual Report of the Tennessee Judiciary for fiscal year 2002-03. Included in this report is information gathered from the offices of the Appellate Court Clerk in Nashville, Knoxville and Jackson and the state clerks of court of Tennessee. The collection of this information is mandated by the Tennessee General Assembly and is used primarily as a tool to measure the effectiveness of the court system in Tennessee. The report is divided into three major sections: appellate (Supreme Court, Court of Appeals and Court of Criminal Appeals) caseload data; state trial court (chancery, circuit and criminal) filings and dispositions data; and jury and non-jury damages and torts data. The state trial court information is being reported by judicial district. No statistical data will be reported for Shelby County Criminal Court for this fiscal year. That office is unable to report caseload information that conforms to Tenn. Code Ann. § 16-1-117 and Supreme Court Rule 11 due to problems with the case management system in use in the criminal court clerk's office. All information disseminated in this report has been distributed to and verified by the judges and the clerks of court of their respective judicial districts. It is hoped that this report will be both informative and helpful. If you have questions or concerns about this report please contact the Administrative Office of the Courts at (615) 741-2687.

Damages and Torts Cases

Fiscal Year 2002-03

Effective July 1, 1989, Tennessee Code Annotated, §16-21-111, requires the clerk of each Circuit Court and the clerk and master of each Chancery Court to report to the Tennessee Judicial Council the following information on a monthly basis: the number of cases filed claiming monetary damages for personal injury or death, and the number of such cases actually proceeding to trial. For those cases proceeding to trial, clerks must also report:

- the number of cases in which the plaintiff was awarded monetary damages for personal injury or death;
- the amount of judgment in a jury case;
- the amount of judgment in a case without a jury;
- any additur or remittitur awarded in the case by the trial judge.

The staff of the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) must compile this information and report the findings of the previous fiscal year to the chairpersons of the Senate and House Judiciary Committees and to the Attorney General.

Pursuant to this code section, the AOC, acting as staff for the Judicial Council, prepared this report. Beginning in fiscal year 1995-96, this report was incorporated into the Annual Report of the Judiciary so that statistical information on the court system could be easily located.

The clerk of each Circuit Court and clerk and master of each Chancery Court send monthly reports on all case filings and dispositions to the AOC. Case filings are classified by case type categories, one of which is damages and torts. The damage and torts category consists of personal injury and wrongful death cases only. Property damage cases are reported under the Miscellaneous

General Civil category. Dispositions are classified according to the manner in which the case is disposed. For the purpose of this report, the disposition categories used were jury and non-jury trials. Also reported is whether or not monetary damages were awarded and the amount awarded, if any, and the amount of any additurs and remittiturs to the original awards. This data is contained on the Tennessee Judicial Information System (TJIS) database.

Information gathered from the TJIS database provides the basis for the analyses included in this report. The following charts and graphs include cases that meet the following criteria:

- the case involved a claim for monetary damages for personal injury or death;
- the case was disposed of during the July 1, 2002 – June 30, 2003, time period;
- the case went to trial;
- the case was not settled or dismissed.

Prior to the publication of this report the AOC staff mailed preliminary data sheets to each Circuit Court clerk and to each clerk and master. Each was asked to review the information for accuracy - specifically taking into consideration the criteria described above - and to submit corrections if necessary. Copies of the data sheets also were sent to each judge in their respective districts.

Overall, for fiscal year 2002-03, data reported as to damages and torts cases showed a small increase in the number of filings and a very slight decrease in the number of dispositions reported over last fiscal year. There were 12,837 filings and 12,040 dispositions for fiscal year 2002-03. Damages and torts cases represented slightly less than 10 percent of civil filings and and dispositions for the fiscal year. Of the 12,040 damages and torts cases disposed of during the year, 763 (slightly over 6 percent) proceeded to trial. Jury trials accounted for 395 cases (52 percent) and non-jury trials for 368 cases (48 percent) of the cases that proceeded to trial. There was a small increase in the number of cases going to trial over those reported last year. The four metropolitan areas (Davidson, Hamilton, Knox and Shelby Counties) had 323 damages and torts cases (42 percent) going to trial. The four metropolitan counties accounted for 37 percent of all civil filings and dispositions for the year. The chart on page 146 has a comparison breakdown of damages and torts cases disposed of and cases going to trial from fiscal years 1990-91 through 2002-03.

Of the 763 cases going to trial in fiscal year 2002-03, 339 were awarded damages. The statewide total for damages awarded is $40,621,974, which is $76.4 million less than reported for the previous fiscal year. This decrease can be attributed in part to the number of large damage awards last fiscal year which included a $44 million award in Knox County.

The four metropolitan areas reported $9,916,553 in damages awarded for this fiscal year, which is significantly less than the amount ($99,247,120) reported for these areas last year. The four metropolitan areas' total damages awarded represents 24 percent of all damages awarded. The chart on page 147 shows total monetary damages for fiscal years 1990-91 through 2002-03.

The average award for fiscal year 2002-03 was $119,829. This represents a decrease of $186,529 from the previous year. The average award for all four metropolitan areas was significantly less than last year. The chart on page 147 gives the average monetary award for fiscal years 1990-91 through 2002-03.

Madison County had the largest award for fiscal year 2002-03 at $5,000,000. There were 13 awards of $500,000 or more for a total of $29,946,593. This represents 74 percent of all damages awarded. Nine of the 13 cases were for $1 million or more for a total of $26,786,593. A brief synopsis of the case with the largest award follows.

Largest Award

The largest award for fiscal year 2002-03, $5,000,000, was a wrongful death suit filed in Madison County Circuit Court on July 1, 2001. The following information was obtained from the Madison County Circuit Court Clerk's Office. The plaintiffs, Marisa Ross, Lin Ross, and Celinda Ross, the surviving minor children of Lynn McCarthy Ross, deceased, by their next friend, guardian and mother, Diana Ross, filed a complaint against Eck Miller Transportation, Clifford Engum, and Dement Construction Company stating that on July 26, 2000, while eastbound on Interstate 40 near mile marker 86 in Jackson, Madison County, Tennessee, Tennessee Highway Patrolman, Lynn M. Ross was killed in the line of duty after his patrol car was violently struck from the rear by a tractor trailer owned by Eck Miller Transportation Corporation and driven by Clifford James Engum.

The plaintiffs made several allegations against the defendants, including the following:

as to Defendant Engum:

- exceeded the posted speed limit and driving at an excessive speed in light of the existing conditions and other traffic on the roadway;
- cruise control set in excess of the posted speed limit and failing to disengage the cruise control prior to impact;
- drove the tractor trailer while fatigued and/or asleep; and
- failed to heed the signage and other warnings which clearly marked the construction zone and which provided additional warning of Trooper Ross's presence.

as to Defendant Eck Miller:

- showed negligence when hiring defendant Engum to drive a tractor trailer for their company despite the fact that he had a substandard driving record, had previously been found guilty of falsifying a logbook, and had previously been involved in a substantially similar rear-end collision involving Utah state troopers; and
- was on actual notice that defendant Engum suffered from conditions that rendered him unfit to operate a tractor trailer.

as to Defendant Dement Construction:

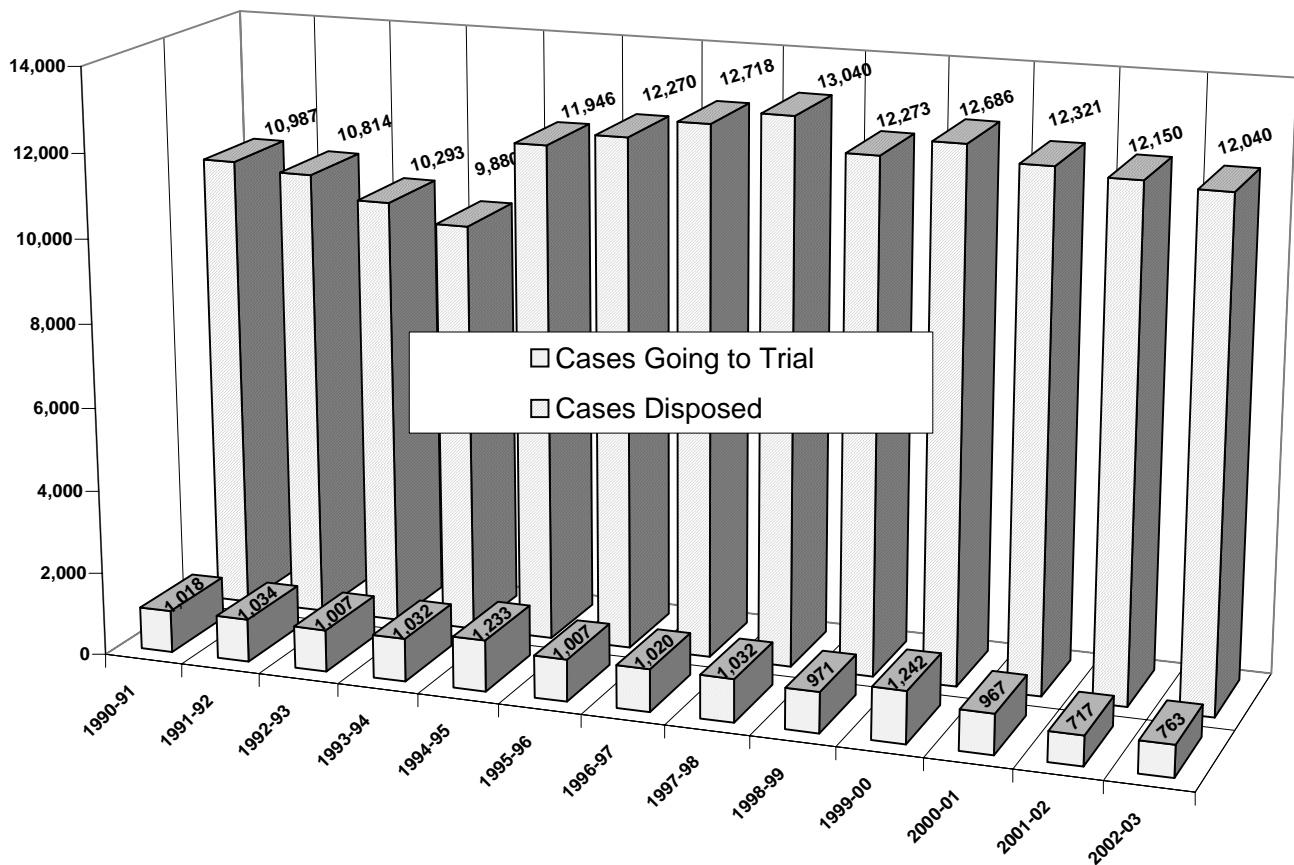

- posted inadequate warning/caution signs for the construction zone where the accident occurred and contributed to the cause of the accident.

A jury trial for defendants Engum and Miller began on September 20, 2002. After due deliberations, the jury found in favor of the plaintiffs and assigned fault as follows: Clifford Engum and Eck Miller Transportation Corporation, 65% and Dement Construction Company, 35%. The jury further reported that they found damages to be as follows: total compensatory damages of $7,745,140 and total punitive damages of $75,000. Defendants Engum and Miller were ordered to pay the plaintiffs damages (compensatory and punitive) in the amount of $5,109,341. (Marisa Ross, Lin Ross, and Celinda Ross, the surviving minor children of Lynn McCarthy Ross, deceased, by their next friend, guardian and mother, Diana Ross v. Eck Miller Transportation Corporation, Clifford Engum, and Dement Construction Company, docket number C01252).

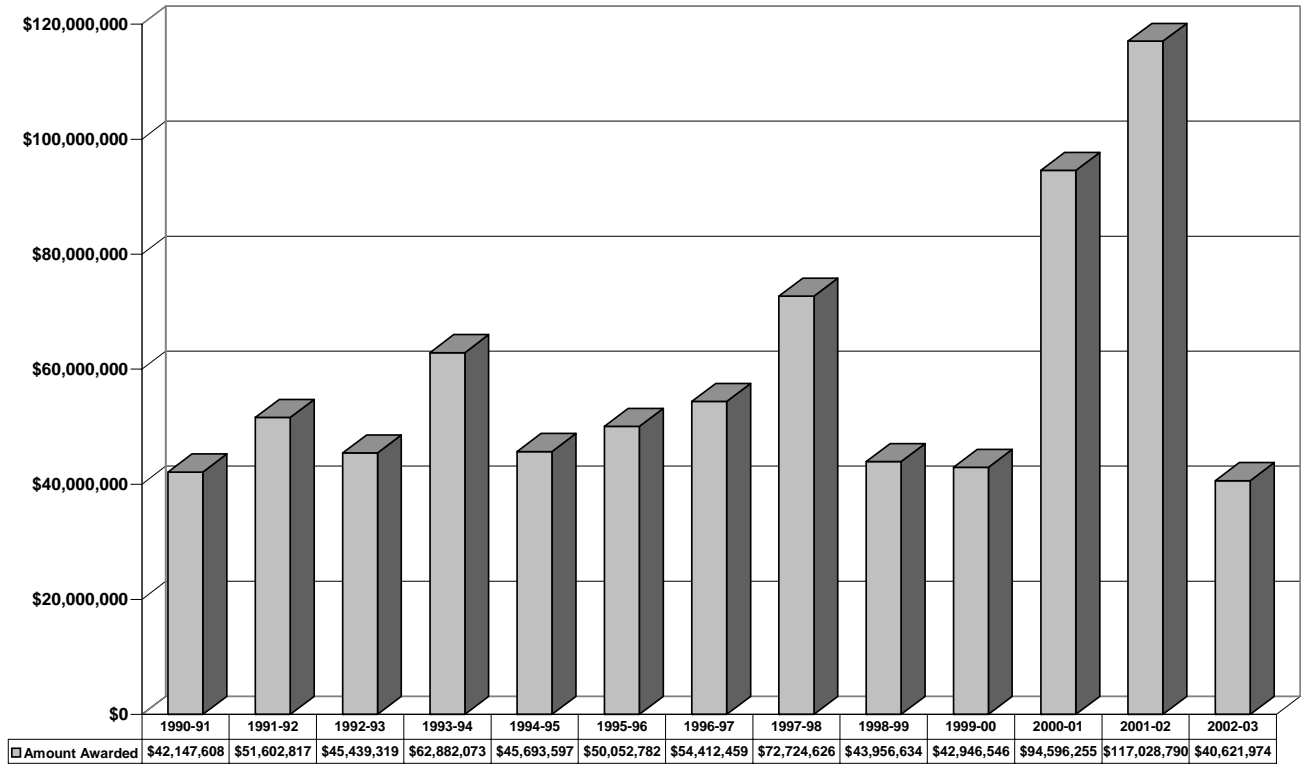

The following charts give a breakdown for each district and county. The information includes the number of damages and torts cases filed and disposed, number of cases going to trial, number of jury and non-jury cases, number of cases awarded damages, a breakdown of the number of monetary awards, total dollar amounts awarded and the average award.
