Memphis!

Come experience all that Memphis has to offer during the 7th Annual Tennessee Municipal Judges Conference.

Memphis, Tennessee, is located next to the Mississippi River and is most famous for being the home of Elvis Presley. Graceland, Elvis Presley's estate in Memphis, is a popular pilgrimage for Elvis fans of all ages and is America's second-most visited house, attracting more than 600,000 tourists each year.

There is plenty more to offer tourists in Memphis than just its numerous Elvis tourist attractions, with the city also being known for its blues venues, rock 'n' roll heritage, chic restaurants, historic museums, and also where Martin Luther King Jr. was assassinated in 1968. The city of Memphis has never been busier and has resulted in much of the city being renovated and redeveloped, including Beale Street, one of the most historic districts in the city, and Peabody Place, which is now full of shops, cafés and nightclubs.

We look forward to seeing you in Memphis!

CONFERENCE INFORMATION

The annual meeting of the Tennessee Municipal Judges Conference is scheduled for August 5-6, 2011, at the Memphis Marriott Downtown.

All of your expenses for attending this conference will be paid by the AOC from the revenue collected under the 2004 Municipal Court Reform Act for municipal judge education. You must submit an expense claim at the conclusion of the annual meeting.
