“I feel certain that I'm going mad again. I feel we can't go thru another of those terrible times. And I shan't recover this time.”

Virginia Woolf

"I was not meant for the job or the spotlight of public life in Washington. Here ruining people is considered sport.”

Vince Foster

“The sadness will last forever.”

Vincent Van Gogh

“I don't have the passion anymore. So remember, it's better to burn out than to fade away.”

Kurt Cobain
