No. ADM2013-02836

ORDER

On December 27, 2013, the Board of Professional Responsibility ("BPR") petitioned this Court to amend Tennessee Supreme Court Rule 9, section 10.1 to provide that an attorney's residence address is confidential and not public record.

After due consideration, the Court hereby adopts a modified version of the proposed amendment, which is set out in the attached Appendix to this order. This amendment is effective immediately.

The Clerk shall provide a copy of this order to LexisNexis and to Thomson Reuters. In addition, this order shall be posted on the Tennessee Supreme Court's website.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

APPENDIX

AMENDMENT TO TENN. SUP. CT. R. 9, § 10.1
[New text is indicated by underlining]

Section 10 Periodic Assessment of Attorneys

10.1. Every attorney admitted to practice before this Court, except those exempt under Section 10.3(b) and (c), shall, on or before the first day of their birth month, file with the Board at its central office an annual registration statement on a form prescribed by the Board, setting forth the attorney's current residence, office, and email addresses, and such other information as the Board may direct. The attorney's residence address is confidential and not a public record, except in the following two circumstances: (1) the attorney failed to provide an office address; or (2) the attorney listed the residence address as the attorney's office address. The attorney may designate the primary or preferred address for receipt of correspondence from the Board. In addition to such annual statement, every attorney shall file with the Board as necessary a supplemental statement of any change in information previously submitted within thirty days of such change.
