Greg Davis, MS, CMPE TN Rule 31 Listed Mediator General, Civil, Family, Domestic Violence, ACR Advanced Practitioner Family, Workplace, Elder issues, ICC Trained Conciliator, will present an in-depth exploration of the role of apology and forgiveness in faith-based conflict resolution. He will look at what it takes to get to forgiveness and how that effectively lays the ground work for consensus and the building of a plan for tomorrow. Program participants will discuss whether mediators have the responsibility to insure that an apology happens,	General Continuing Education	6:00 p.m.	7:00 p.m.	1 hr. gen. med. issues or whether they should even worry about the aspect of forgiveness. They will address whether mediators should feel comfortable in addressing those issues, and the extent to which mediators are qualified to take on the responsibility of leading distressed individuals through the process of self examination and reflection to the point that they are ready willing and able work to reconcile the situation to a functional level.
