

Policy 23. Application Fee Structure (Effective June 1, 2016)

Application fees for Rule 31 listing shall be as follows:

$25

Application for “specially trained in domestic violence issues” designation only based on attendance at ADRC approved DV course  If applicant is already family listed and only wants to add this designation to his/her family listing, the Programs Manager will process the fee and paperwork administratively as no approval of the Commission is needed.

$50

Application for “specially trained in domestic violence issues” designation only based on training waiver of attendance at ADRC approved DV course ADR Training Committee will recommend approval/denial of waiver and Commission will review and determine designation at next scheduled Commission meeting.

$100

Application fee for one listing (general civil OR family)

$125

Application fee for family listing with “specially trained in domestic violence issues” designation based on attendance at ADRC approved DV course

$150

Application fee for dual listing (general civil AND family)

Application fee for family listing with “specially trained in domestic violence issues” designation based on training waiver of attendance at ADRC approved DV course

$175

Application fee for dual listing (general civil AND family) with “specially trained in domestic violence issues” designation based on attendance at ADRC approved DV course

$200

Application fee for one listing (general civil OR family) with training waiver

Application for dual listing (general civil AND family) with “specially trained in domestic violence issues” designation based on training waiver of attendance at ADRC approved DV course

$225

Application fee for family listing with training waiver with “specially trained in domestic violence issues” designation based on attendance at ADRC approved course

$250

Application fee for dual listing (general civil AND family) with training waiver(s)

Application fee for family listing with training waiver with “specially trained in domestic violence issues” designation based on training waiver of attendance at ADRC approved DV course

$275

Application fee for dual listing (general civil AND family) listing with training waiver(s) with “specially trained in domestic violence issues” designation based on attendance at ADRC approved course

$300

Application fee for dual listing (general civil AND family) listing with training waiver(s) with “specially trained in domestic violence issues” designation based on training waiver of attendance at ADRC approved DV course