CONFIDENTIAL INVESTIGATOR WORK PRODUCT

Comprehensive Summary

Predication

The office of the District Attorney General of the 18th Judicial District requested that the Division of Investigations of the Tennessee Comptroller of the Treasury compile and analyze the billing records of attorney Jennifer Thompson related to her representation of Zachary Rye Adams. Adams, represented by new counsel, has filed a Petition for Post Conviction Relief, alleging that his trial counsel was ineffective and did not deliver competent representation. Adams was represented by Jennifer Thompson and James Simmons at trial, who were both appointed and thus billed the State of Tennessee for their work on the case. Jennifer Nichols, Assistant District Attorney General of Shelby County at the time, was appointed as special prosecutor for the case, and is now Assistant District Attorney (ADA) General for Sumner County. ADA Nichols told COT investigators that she was advised that Jennifer Thompson is actively working to help secure a new trial for Adams and will testify that she was ineffective as his counsel. ADA Nichols has requested that the Comptroller of the Treasury (COT) perform a compilation and analysis of Jennifer Thompson's billing records (C-03).

Background

According to the court orders appointing counsel for Zachary Rye Adams, Jennifer Thompson was retained by Adams to represent him following his initial indictment for first degree murder. Following a superseding indictment, the state filed a notice of intent to seek the death penalty, which necessitated the appointment of a second attorney to represent Adams. The court appointed James Simmons as Adams' second counsel. However, per the request of Jennifer Thompson, the court designated Simmons as lead counsel, and Thompson was designated as co-counsel (H-02, H-03).

The Tennessee Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) provided COT investigators with all claims submitted by Jennifer Thompson and James Simmons to the AOC Claims and Payment (ACAP) System for the representation of Zachary Rye Adams. These claims itemize the in-court and out-of-court hours spent working on the case and related expenses incurred by date and include detailed descriptions of the work performed and expenses. During a meeting with COT investigators, AOC officials discovered that Jennifer Thompson was never paid for the claim she submitted for her work in September 2017, which was the month in which the trial of Zachary Rye Adams occurred. AOC returned this claim to Thompson due to her daily hours reported exceeding an AOC audit threshold which requires AOC to request additional timekeeping support, but Thompson never provided the additional support and therefore the claim was never paid (D-02).

Scope

CONFIDENTIAL INVESTIGATOR WORK PRODUCT

Investigators converted all ACAP billing data from Thompson and Simmons to Excel and included it in the raw data in each workpaper. However, since the petition filed by Adams alleges that his trial counsel was ineffective, all summaries or analysis of billing data only includes billing data from the pre-trial and trial time period. Thompson's first day working on the case per her ACAP claims was September 4, 2015, and her last day working on the case before beginning appellate work was September 28, 2017. As such, the scope for all summary and analysis is September 1, 2015, to September 30, 2017.

Methodology

Investigators sought to compile all ACAP billing records from Jennifer Thompson and James Simmons in Excel and summarize the billing data in a manner that allows the user to understand the amount of work performed by Thompson and identify trends in her work over time. Investigators summarized the billing data of James Simmons for the purpose of comparison to Thompson's billing data.

Investigators categorized all of Jennifer Thompson's hours worked as reported in claims with the goal of summarizing of how much time Thompson committed to her various responsibilities as defense counsel. Investigators created 10 broad categories and 39 sub-categories to describe the type and purpose of the work performed (E-01). Investigators also summarized Jennifer Thompson's billing data by week and found her average hours worked per week by fiscal quarter to show how her weekly time worked on the case changed over time (E-02). Investigators compared Thompson's time worked on the case to James Simmons' time worked and also considered the amount of time the two worked together according to their billing data.

Analysis

Investigators performed a limited analysis of Jennifer Thompson's billing data that focused on presenting the data in a manner that is more easily digestible. Investigators did not draw any conclusions about the effectiveness of the defense Zachary Adams received based on the analysis of Thompson's billing data.

Jennifer Thompson Billing Data by Category

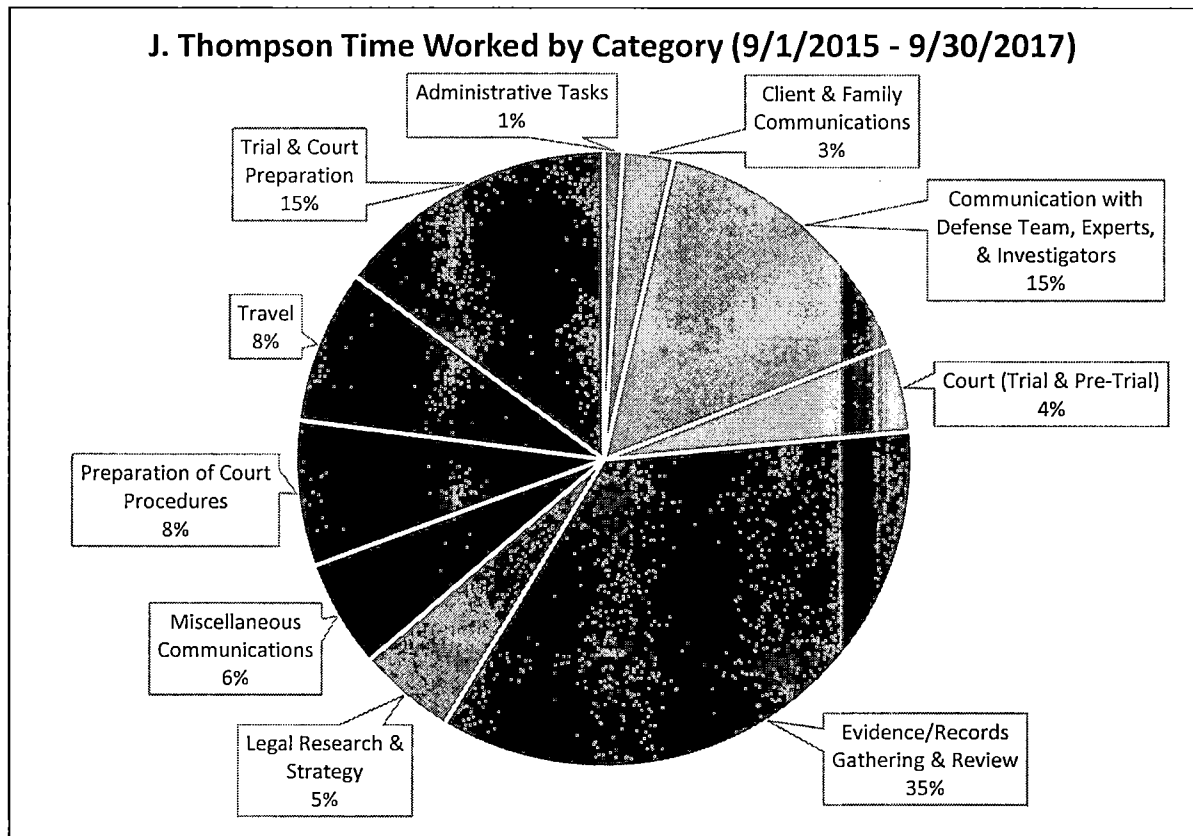

Jennifer Thompson reported 2,780.6 hours worked from September 1, 2015, to September 30, 2017. 60% of Jennifer Thompson's hours reported during this period fall under six sub-categories, as detailed in the table below. Thompson spent a significant amount of her time on Discovery Review, Records Review, and Trial Preparation (E-01).

Sub-Categories with Over 100 Hours Worked (9/1/2015 - 9/30/2017)

CONFIDENTIAL INVESTIGATOR WORK PRODUCT

Sub-Category	Hours	% of Total Hours
Discovery Review	366.2	13%
Records Review	266.5	9%
Trial Preparation	265.5	9%
Travel	231.5	8%
Defense Team Meetings & Calls	226.8	8%
Motions, Orders, Briefs	202.5	7%
Witness Interviews & Research	157.4	5%
Total for Above Sub-Categories	1,716.4	60%
Total Hours	2,870.6	100%

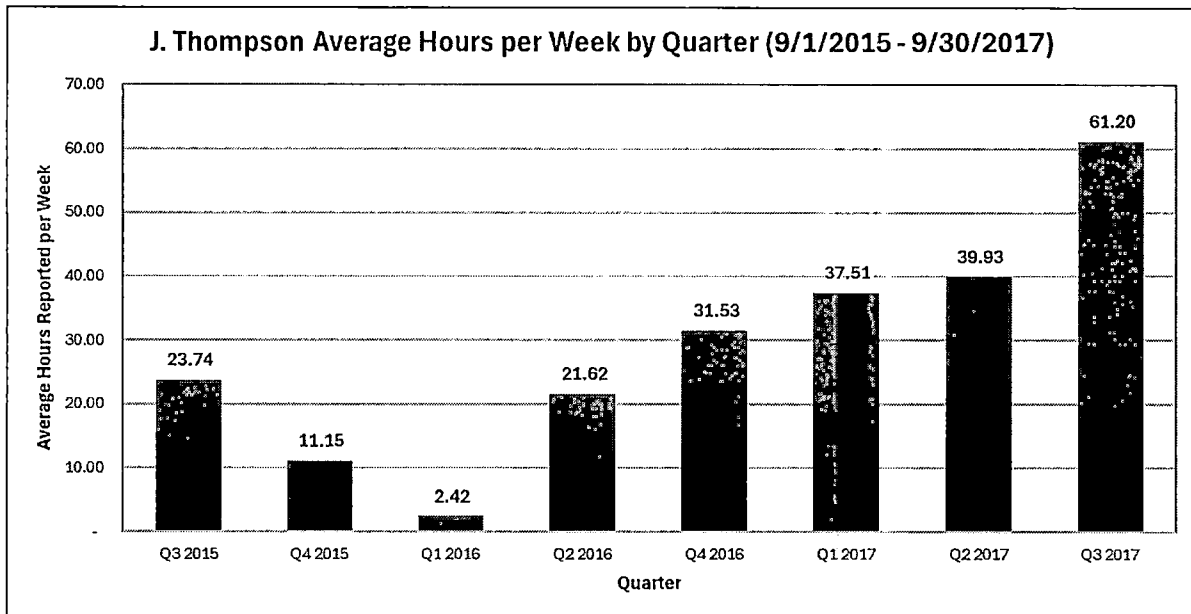

From September 1, 2015, to September 30, 2017, 65% of Thompson's hours reported fall under the three broad categories of Evidence/Records Review, Communications with Defense Team/Experts/Investigators, and Trial & Court Preparation. The below pie chart shows the allocation of Thompson's hours worked across the ten work categories (E-01).

Jennifer Thompson Average Hours Worked per Week

CONFIDENTIAL INVESTIGATOR WORK PRODUCT

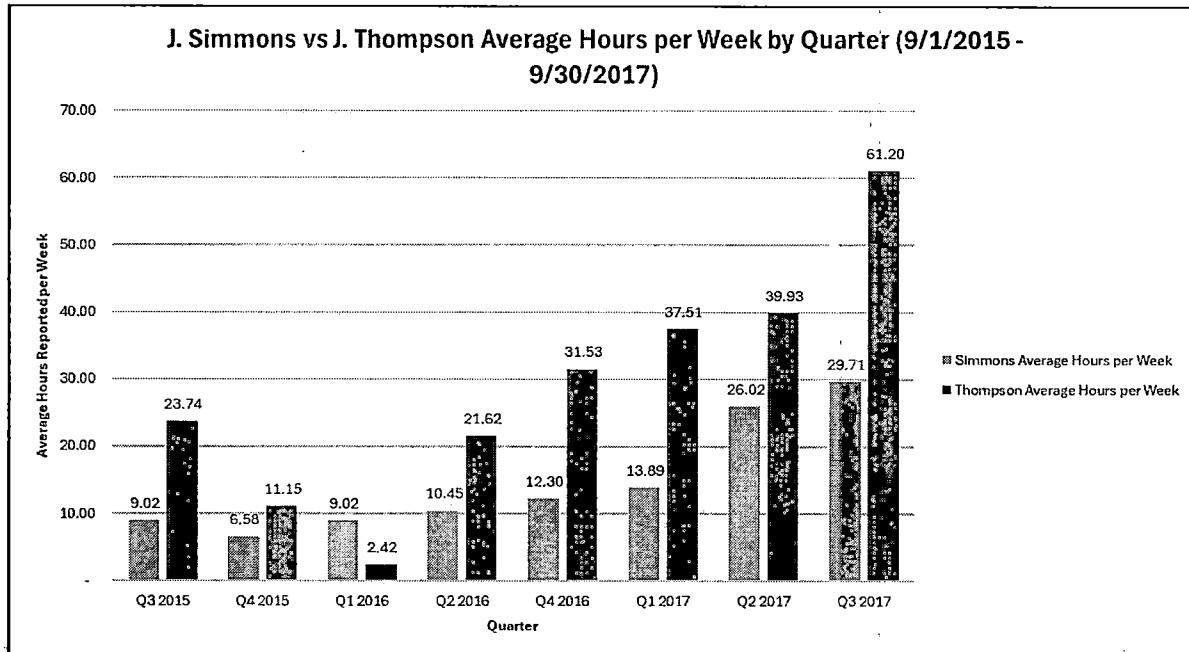

Investigators calculated Thompson's hours worked per week from September 1, 2015, to September 30, 2017, and then used that data to find her average hours worked per week by fiscal quarter. As shown in the bar chart below, Thompson's average hours worked per week generally increased over time. Thomson reported almost 40 hours per week on the case for the first six months of 2017, and she averaged 61.2 hours per week in in Q3 2017, which included the two months before the trial and the month of the trial.

Comparison of Jennifer Thompson and James Simmons Hours Worked per Week

CONFIDENTIAL INVESTIGATOR WORK PRODUCT

Investigators calculated James Simmons' average hours worked per week by fiscal quarter and compared these figures to those of Jennifer Thompson. As shown in the bar chart below, Thompson reported significantly more hours worked than Simmons throughout their time working on the defense of Zachary Adams, despite Simmons being designated as lead counsel.

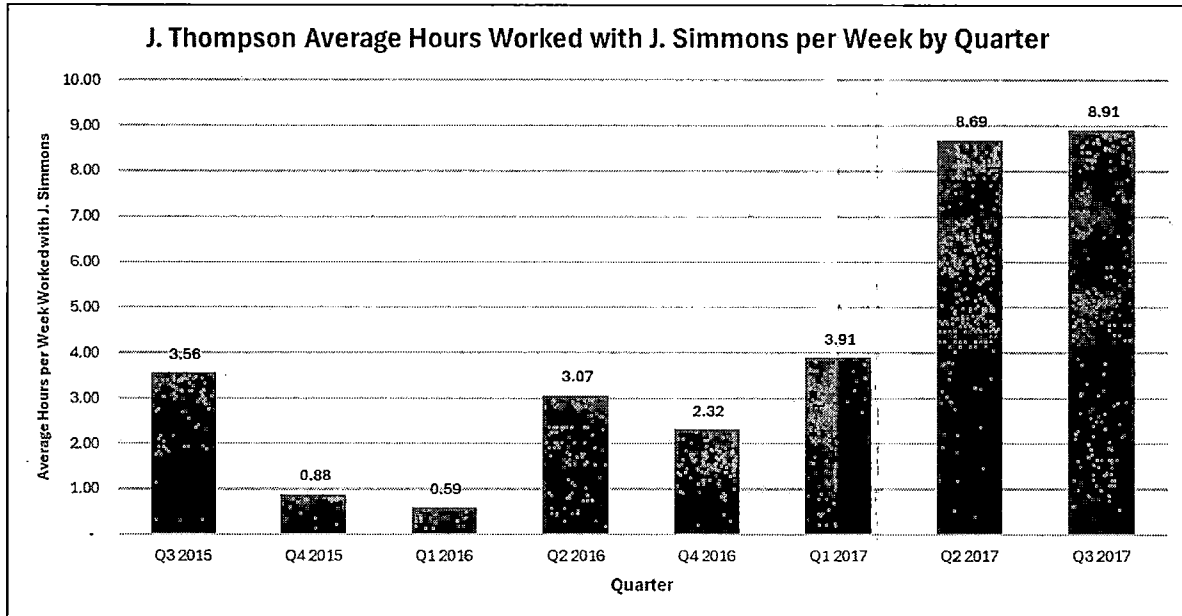

Thompson and Simmons Hours Worked Together

Investigators identified any instances of Thompson and Simmons working together in the hours they each reported in their ACAP claims. Investigators reviewed the descriptions for each line of activity of Thompson's ACAP claims for instances of Thompson claiming to have worked directly with Simmons, and vice versa. Time working together includes meetings together, phone calls together, and any time spent in court, but does not include emails. According to Thompson's ACAP claims, she spent 390.7 hours working directly with James Simmons. Simmons' ACAP claims show he reported 390.3 hours worked with Thompson (F-03).

Investigators used Thompson's billing data to find her average hours worked with Simmons per week by fiscal quarter and created the bar chart below. According to Thompson's billing data, Thompson and Simmons worked together for a few hours each week on average from Q3 2015 to Q1 2017. In Q2 2017 and Q3 2017, Thompson and Simmons averaged approximately 9 hours of working together each week (F-03).

425 Rep. John Lewis Way N
Nashville, Tennessee 37243

Dear Director Puckett,

This letter confirms our recent communication about a criminal case, State of Tennessee v Zachary Rye Adam, that I tried seven years ago in Hardin County. As we discussed, Adams, represented by new counsel, has filed a Petition for Post Conviction Relief and a Writ of Error Coram Nobis as his appeals have run their course.

The Petition alleges that his trial counsel was ineffective, did not deliver competent representation, and thus, he should be granted a new trial. The trial itself followed a years long investigation led by TBI and two different elected DA's, before I was appointed pro tem and at the least, would be difficult to re-try.

Adams was represented by Jennifer Thompson and James Simmons at trial. Both were appointed and thus billed the State of Tennessee for the work on Adams' case.

I feel strongly that Mr. Adams received competent and effective representation, and yet, I was advised that attorney Jennifer Thompson is actively working to help secure a new trial for Mr. Adams. I was also advised that she will testify that she was ineffective. As a first step in countering that testimony, I obtained the billing records sent to the AOC for their work. Though I am not a CPA, or an investigator, those records confirm my belief that Adams' trial counsel was effective.

I am asking that your department analyze and report upon the billing/ financial records that counsel sent to the State of Tennessee. Neither TBI nor I can do the proper analysis, and in addition, even if we did, it would not be considered an objective review.

Thank you for your consideration. If you need anything further, please let me know.

Sincerely,

NO. 15-CR-30

Judge Creed McGinley

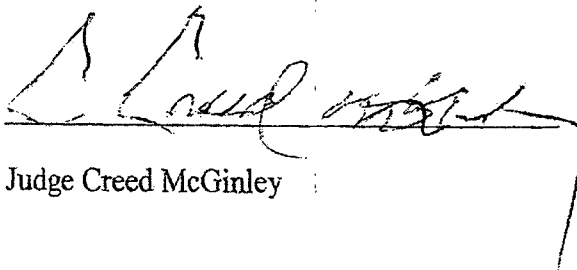

Death Penalty

ORDER APPOINTING CO-COUNSEL

This Court previously determined that Zachary Rye Adams was indigent and met the qualifications for the appointment of counsel and appointed James A Simmons to represent him. The State of Tennessee has file a notice of intent to seek the death penalty in this case which requires the appointment of additional counsel to represent Zachary Rye Adams. Jennifer Thompson represented Zachary Adams in Case No. 14-CR-17. However, she was not retained to represent the defendant in this case.

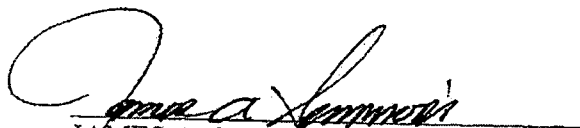

IT IS THEREORE ORDERED pursuant to § 3(b)(1) of Rule 13 of the Tennessee Supreme Court Rules that Jennifer Thompson, 810 Broadway, Ste. 305, Nashville, TN 37203, be appointed as co-counsel for Zachary Rye Adams

It is so ORDERED this 31st day of June, 2015.

STATE OF TENNESSEE

Case No. 15-CR-30

vs.

ZACHERY RYE ADAMS
Defendant

ORDER APPOINTING COUNSEL

On March 5, 2014, defendant, Zachery Rye Adams, was indicted for the first degree murder of Holly Bobo. Shortly thereafter he retained attorney Jennifer Thompson to represent him in this matter. On March 19, 2015, a superseding indictment was obtained charging Zachery Rye Adams and co-defendants Jason Autry and Dylan Adams with two counts of First Degree Murder During the Perpetration of a Felony; two counts of Especially Aggravated Kidnapping; three counts of Aggravated Rape; and, one count of Premeditated First Degree Murder. On June 3, 2015, the state filed a notice of intent to seek the death penalty against all three defendants.

The filing of the State's Notice of Intent to Seek the Death Penalty and Aggravating Factors, necessitates the appointment of a second attorney to defendant's case. See Tenn. S. Ct. R. 13, Section 3 part (b)(1). This court finds, defendant, Zachery Rye Adams, is indigent for purposes of obtaining additional counsel and the necessary services required for preparation and presentation of a defense in this capital matter. Therefore, this court appoints attorney Jim Simmons, BPR #010107 as defendant's second counsel in this case.

Per the request of attorney Thompson, this court designates attorney Simmons as lead counsel. This court finds attorney Simmons is qualified to serve as capital lead counsel under Tenn. S. Ct. R. 13, Section 3, part (c).

It is so ordered this the 11th day of June 2015.

Memo

To: FILE
From: Scott Udulutch, CFE, Investigator
Date: March 28, 2024
Re: Meeting with Joe Byrd and John Coke

On Wednesday, March 27, 2024, at approximately 10:00 am (CST), Comptroller Investigators Forrest Richardson and Scott Udulutch met with Joe Byrd, Lead Attorney for the Indigent Services Team of the Tennessee Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) [phone: 615-741-2687; cell: 423-584-2226; email: Joe.Byrd@tncourts.gov] and John Coke, General Counsel for the AOC [John.Coke@tncourts.gov], regarding the expenses claimed by attorney Jennifer Thompson for the defense of Zachary Adams. Mr. Byrd and Mr. Coke provided the following information:

The AOC only gets what the attorneys submit. If there is a gap in time for which there is no billing activity from an attorney, then the attorney did not submit a claim for that time period. When the AOC received the subpoena requesting all claim information that was turned in by Thompson for the Adams case, Byrd informed her that the claim summaries were the best option due to the amount of information she would receive. They have turned over all records that were filed under that subpoena.

During the time of the case, the AOC had two record-keeping systems. Prior to 2017, they used the ICE system, and from 2017 to the present, they have been using the ACAP system. ICE was an in-house built system.

To perform a claim search in ACAP, a person can filter by case type, district, claim date, defendant, first/ last name of attorney, BPR #, or various other identifiers. The claim date is automatically filled as the day an attorney submits their claim. In a capital case, a claim must be submitted at least every 30 days but no more than every 180 days. If an attorney fails to follow this rule, the AOC will zero out the hours that were worked on the case.

The attorney puts their information into ACAP, which is then sent to the judge for approval; it is then forwarded to the AOC, where it goes through multiple auditors before final approval. The judge on the case will review anything over $400. After auditor approval, it goes to the fiscal department for batching and then sent to Edison for payment. The ACAP interfaces with Edison. Judges have their own logins for ACAP.

Confidential Investigator Work Product

There is no cap on the amount attorneys can be compensated for capital cases. Other case types have a cap on the amount an attorney can be paid related to that case.

During our meeting, Investigator Richardson mentioned there were two months of claims that were missing from Thompson's package (Sept 2017 and May 2017). One of those being the month of the trial (Sept 2017). Upon review, that month was found and forwarded for review.

It appeared to Byrd and Coke that this month had been categorized as an overclaim and sent back to Thompson for additional supporting documentation. Since Thompson never replied, this claim is still sitting in the ACAP system unresolved, and therefore has never been paid. Byrd and Thompson thought it was unusual that Thompson failed to respond to a claim worth over $18k.

The reason it was not sent initially with the rest of the claims was that the AOC only searched for and sent "paid" claims and not all claims associated with the case.

Overclaims are made if an attorney claims more than 8 hours in court in one day or more than 12 hours total in a day. These automatically flag ACAP for review. These claims are sent back to the attorney for supporting documentation. These denials can be reactivated, but resubmissions start the review process all over again.

Attorneys have 30 days to respond to a denial; after that, they have 10 days to request chief justice review.

Appellate cases have a cap of $1,000. They might have a $2,000 cap for complex or extended cases.

Thompson was initially appointed lead counsel, but James Simmons was moved into that position probably due to Thompson's lack of qualifications or experience. The AOC relies on the judges to check the qualifications of each attorney.

Rule 13 is the main billing regulation that the AOC follows for claim payments. Byrd forwarded a quick guide for Rule 13:

- Sec. 2 provides the rates and caps for non-capital cases and the complex and extended caps. These apply to the post-conviction and appeals proceedings.
- Sec. 3 deals exclusively with capital cases. Sec. 3(c) provides qualifications for lead counsel; Sec. 3(d) provides qualifications for co-counsel; Sec. 3(k) provides the rates
- Sec. 4 deals with expenses, but I did not highlight anything in that section
- Sec. 5 deals with experts and investigators, but I did not highlight anything in that section
- Sec. 6(a)(4) deals with billing on capital cases; Sec. 6(a)(6) and (7) and Sec. 6(b)(1) relates to contemporaneous time records, supporting documents, and the AOC's authority

Confidential Investigator Work Product

The AOC has additional policies and procedures that they follow in addition to Rule 13 guidelines.

Some rules that have to be followed are: an attorney cannot bill for time used inputting information into ACAP, limit on time to open a file, maximum billable limit for daily parking, must use the State rate for hotel stays, etc.

Byrd and Coke were thanked for their time and information. The meeting concluded at approximately 11:40 a.m. CST.

Comptroller of the Treasury
Jennifer Thompson Billing Data
Jennifer Thompson Billing Data by Category

Purpose: To categorize Jennifer Thompson's billing data for her representation of Zachary Adams by type of work performed and then summarize the hours worked by category.

Data Source: Jennifer Thompson's billing data for her representation of Adams was provided by the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC). The billing data comes from the invoices Thompson submitted to the AOC Claims and Payment (ACAP) System. COT investigators converted the data in Thompson's invoices to excel.

Methodology: COT investigators created 10 broad categories and 39 sub-categories to describe the type and purpose of the work performed by Jennifer Thompson as reported in her ACAP invoices. The categories were chosen with the goal of determining how much time Thompson committed to her various responsibilities as defense counsel. Meetings and phone calls were categorized by the individuals Thompson met/spoke with or the subject of the meetings and calls. Investigators created categories of individuals listed in Thompson's billing records based on their affiliation with the case, such as defense team, experts, and investigators. These categories and the individuals in those categories are listed at G-01.

Scope of Analysis: The data on the Billing Data tab includes Thompson's ACAP claims from September 4, 2015, to November 21, 2022. This analysis is focused on Thompson's work performed before and during Adams' trial, from 9/4/2015 to 9/28/2015. All billing data after 9/28/2017 relates to appellate work performed. Therefore, the scope of the analyses on tabs 3 and 4 is 9/1/2015 to 9/30/2017.

Procedures: Tab 1 - Billing Data

Columns A-F contain all of Jennifer Thompson's billing data from her ACAP invoices. Investigators reviewed each line of data from Thompson's billing invoices and assigned a sub-category in Column I based on the type of work performed in the description. The category in Column J is driven by the sub-category assigned.

Tab 2 - Category Descriptions

This tab lists the sub-categories, categories, and descriptions for the sub-categories.

Tab 3 - Hours by Sub-Category

A pivot table of the data on tab 1 is used to summarize the total hours by sub-category from 9/1/2015 to 9/30/2017. A horizontal bar chart was created using the pivot table to display how Thompson allocated her time between sub-categories.

Tab 4 - Hours by Category

A pivot table of the data on tab 1 is used to summarize the total hours by category from 9/1/2015 to 9/30/2017. A pie chart was created using the pivot table to display how Thompson allocated her time between sub-categories.

Tab 5 - Check Figures

This tab ensures the data used in the analysis agrees to the totals per the invoices.

Analysis: Per the data summarized on tab 3, 60% of Jennifer Thompson's hours reported from 9/1/2015 to 9/30/2017 fall under six sub-categories, as detailed below. Thompson spent a significant amount of her time on Discovery Review, Records Review, and Trial Preparation. Investigators note that Records Review does not include the 60.4 hours Thompson dedicated to review of cell phone records, which is its own sub-category due to the significance of cell phone records to the case.

Comptroller of the Treasury
Jennifer Thompson Billing Data Analytics
Summary

Purpose: To summarize Jennifer Thompson's billing data by week and identify trends in the amount of work she performed over time.

Data Source: Jennifer Thompson's billing data for her representation of Zachary Adams was provided by the TN Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC). The billing data comes from the invoices Thompson submitted to the AOC Claims and Payment (ACAP) System. COT investigators converted the data in Thompson's invoices to excel.

Procedures: Tab 1 - Hours per Week

Thompson's hours worked data from the Billing Data tab were summed by week. Investigators listed the date range, Sunday to Saturday, for each week from 8/30/2015 (the first week Thompson reported work performed on the case) to 9/30/2017, and then used a SUMIF function to sum the hours from the Billing Data tab for each week.

Column A lists the fiscal quarter each week falls in. If a week was split between fiscal quarters, the week was assigned to quarter in which most of that week occurred.

Column F lists key dates in the court process and relevant notes by COT.

Tab 2 - Average Hours per Week by Quarter

The table on tab 2 averages Thompson's hours worked per week from tab 2 for each fiscal quarter from 9/1/15 to 9/30/17. The table utilizes an AVERAGEIF function to find the average hours of the weeks included in each quarter according to tab 2. A bar chart was generated from the data in the table.

Tab 3 - Hours per Day

Thompson's hours worked per the Billing Data tab were summed by day. Conditional formatting was used to highlight any daily totals exceeding 16 hours yellow and any daily hours exceeding 20 hours red. Investigators sought to explain any of these daily totals exceeding 16 hours to ensure there were no irregularities in the hours Thompson was reporting on these days.

Tab 4 - Billing Data

This tab contains all of Thompson's billing data from her ACAP invoices.

Tab 5 - Check Figures

This tab ensures the data used in the analysis agrees to the totals per the invoices.

Analysis: Thompson reported she worked almost 40 hours per week on this case for the first six months of 2017, and she averaged 61.2 hours per week in the third quarter of 2017, which included the two months before the trial and the month of the trial.

Average Hours Worked per Week by Quarter

Purpose/Procedure: The table below averages Thompson's hours worked per week for each fiscal quarter from 9/1/15 to 9/30/17. The table utilizes an AVERAGEIF function to find the average of the weeks included in each quarter according to tab 2. The bar chart below was generated from the data in the table.

Quarter	Average Hours per Week
Q3 2015	23.74
Q4 2015	11.15
Q1 2016	2.42
Q2 2016	21.62
Q4 2016	31.53
Q1 2017	37.51
Q2 2017	39.93 Note 1
Q3 2017	61.20

Analysis: Thompson reported almost 40 hours per week on this case for the first six months of 2017, and she averaged 61.2 hours per week in in Q3 2017, which included the two months before the trial and the month of the trial.

Note 1: Investigators note that the data for Q2 2017 does not include any data for May 2017. Jennifer Thompson did not submit an invoice for May 2017. Per review of Jim Simmons' billing data, Simmons reports working with Thompson on six different occasions throughout the month, for a total of 8.1 hours. There was no documentation submitted by Thompson of her worked performed. As such, the calculation of average hours per week for Q2 2017 does not include May 2017.

Hours Worked per Day

Purpose/Procedures: Thompson's hours worked per the Billing Data tab were summed by day. Conditional formatting was used to highlight any daily totals exceeding 16 hours yellow and any daily hours exceeding 20 hours red. Investigators sought to explain any of these daily totals exceeding 16 hours to ensure there were no irregularities in the hours Thompson was reporting on these days.

Analysis: Investigators found no information to suggest Thompson incorrectly reported her hours on days with hour totals exceeding 16 hours.

J. Thompson Hours Worked with J. Simmons

Summary

Purpose: To identify time charges in Jennifer Thompson's billing data where she was working with lead counsel Jim Simmons and to summarize that time by week and by average hours per week.

Data Source: Jennifer Thompson's billing data for her representation of Zachary Adams was provided by the TN Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC). The billing data comes from the invoices Thompson submitted to the AOC Claims and Payment (ACAP) System. COT investigators converted the data in Thompson's invoices to excel.

Methodology: Investigators identified any time charges in Thompson's billing data where she listed that she was working with Jim Simmons, whether in person or on a phone call. Investigators did not include email correspondence as time spent working directly with Simmons.

Procedures: Tab 1 - Hours Worked with Simmons

Columns A-F contain all of Jennifer Thompson's billing data from her ACAP invoices except her expense reimbursement claims. Investigators reviewed the descriptions for each line billed for instances of Thompson working directly with Simmons, including any time spent in court but -- excluding emails. In Column H, investigators indicated whether Thompson worked directly with Jim Simmons during the given time reported (with "Y" for Yes) or if she did not work directly with Simmons during that time reported (with "N" for No). If the value in Column H is a "Y", the formula in Column I populates the cell with the total hours from that line.

Tab 2 - Hours per Week

Thompson's hours worked with Simmons in Column I of tab 1 were summed by week on tab 2.

Investigators listed the date range, Sunday to Saturday, for each week from 8/30/2015 (the first week Thompson reported work performed on the case) to 9/30/2017, and then used a SUMIF function to sum the hours from Column I on tab 1 for each week.

Column A lists the fiscal quarter each week falls in. If a week was split between fiscal quarters, the week was assigned to quarter in which most of that week occurred.

Tab 3 - Average Hours per Week by Quarter

The table on tab 3 averages Thompson's hours worked per week with Jim Simmons from tab 2 for each fiscal quarter from 8/30/15 to 9/30/17. The table utilizes an AVERAGEIF function to find the average hours of the weeks included in each quarter according to tab 2. A bar chart was generated from the data in the table.

Tab 4 - Simmons Billing Data

Columns A-G contain Simmons' billing data from his ACAP invoices. Columns I and J contain COT's identification of hours Simmons worked directly with Jennifer Thompson. Investigators reviewed the descriptions for each line billed on Simmons' ACAP invoices for instances of Simmons working directly with Thompson, including any time spent in court but excluding emails. In Column I, investigators indicated whether Simmons worked directly with Thompson during the given time reported (with "Y" for Yes) or if he did not work directly with Thompson during that time reported (with "N" for No). If the value in Column I is a "Y", the formula in Column J populates the cell with the total hours from that line.

Analysis: According to Thompson's billing records, she spent 390.7 hours working directly with Simmons. Simmons' billing data reports 390.3 hours worked with Thompson, supporting the accuracy of Thompson's time reported.

According to Thompson's billing data, Thompson and Simmons worked together for a few hours each week on average from Q3 2015 to Q1 2017. In Q2 2017 and Q3 2017, Thompson and Simmons averaged approximately 9 hours of working together each week. Investigators note that these hours include time spent in court, both pre-trial and during trial.

Note 1

Investigators note that Jennifer Thompson did not submit an invoice for May 2017. Per review of Jim Si reports working with Thompson on six different days throughout the month, for a total of 8.1 hours. Th submitted for Thompson in May 2017; therefore, we were unable to reconcile to Simmon's May-2017 it

Comptroller of the Treasury
J. Thompson Hours Worked with J. Simmons
Jennifer Thompson Average Hours Worked with Jim Simmons per Week by Quarter

Purpose/Procedure: The table below averages Thompson's hours worked per week with Jim Simmons from tab 2 for each fiscal quarter from 8/30/15 to 9/30/17. The table utilizes an AVERAGEIF function to find the average of the weeks included in each quarter according to tab 2. The bar chart below was generated from the data in the table.

Quarter	Average Hours per Week
Q3 2015	3.56
Q4 2015	0.88
Q1 2016	0.59
Q2 2016	3.07
Q4 2016	2.32
Q1 2017	3.91
Q2 2017	8.69 Note 1
Q3 2017	8.91

Analysis: Thompson and Simmons worked together for a few hours each week on average from Q3 2015 to Q1 2017. In Q2 2017 and Q3 2017, Thompson and Simmons averaged approximately 9 hours of working together each week. Investigators note that these hours include time spent in court, both pre-trial and during trial.

Note 1: Investigators note that the data for Q2 2017 does not include any data for May 2017. Jennifer Thompson did not submit an invoice for May 2017. Per review of Jim Simmons' billing data,

Simmons reports working with Thompson on six different days throughout the month, for a total of 8.1 hours. There was no documentation submitted for Thompson in May 2017; therefore, we were unable to reconcile to Simmon's May 2017 invoice. As such, the calculation of average hours per week for Q2 2017 does not include May 2017.
