PETITIONER

V.

No. 17-CR-10-PC

STATE OF TENNESSEE,

MOTION TO ALLOW THE STATE OF TENNESSEE TO INSPECT ALL DOCUMENTS AND EXHIBITS FILED UNDER SEAL PRIOR TO POST CONVICTION FILING

Comes now the State of Tennessee and moves this Honorable Court to allow the State to Inspect all documents filed under seal during the pendency of the prosecution of State of Tennessee v. Zachary Rye Adams and in support thereof submits the following:

1. Petitioner's post-conviction petitions allege ineffective assistance of his attorneys rendering any and all work done by counsels during trial and in preparation for trial relevant to disprove Petitioner's allegations.
2. The State has a duty to diligently prepare for the hearing in this case and protect the conviction.
3. Information contained in the documents currently under seal in the Circuit Court Clerk's office should be accessible to the State in its preparation.
4. Allegations made by Petitioner in pending post convictions may be refutable or called into question by the contents of documents currently filed under seal.

5. The petitioner's counsel has had an opportunity to view the documents under seal.

For the foregoing reasons, we ask this Honorable Court to allow the State to inspect all documents placed under seal during the prosecution of State v. Zachary Adams.
