We now have the 1st Qtr. TJIS Civil Pending Reports online at the AOC website. We appreciate all the courts working to dispose older pending cases. For your convenience, here is the link for the detailed caseload reports: <https://www.tncourts.gov/node/3682300>. Depending on the browser you use, you may be able to click on it and the page will open for you to enter the password or you may have to right click and choose 'open hyperlink'.

The password is "tnjustice". This password is not to be shared with anyone outside your office.

Please work these reports per the instructions. We would like to have your reports returned by Thursday, December 18, 2025.

Please go to the AOC link to print your courts pending report (Individual Case Listing) for your court with the (as of September 30, 2025) date and you will see your county's bookmarks on the left-hand side. The screen may look a little different, depending on the browser you use. For Civil Pending Reports: Double click on your county name. Choose your County and Court by clicking on it.

Notice the page your report starts on and write the page number down. Arrow down until you find the last page and write it down. You may also click on the first page of the next report and subtract one page to find your end page. As an example, see the screenshots from the 3rd Qtr. Pending Report and notes on the next page.

This shows the first page of your ‘Anderson’ Chancery Court report.

- Disposition Date
- Manner of Disposition
(1-9, definitions attached)

2. Write all corrections on the report itself.
3. Do not cross out any docket numbers.
4. Do not write "delete" if the case has been disposed.

Manner of Disposition (Disposition Categories):

Item	Definition
1. Withdrawn/Voluntary Nonsuit	When the plaintiff abandons his case, and consents that judgment go against him for costs.
2. Compromise/ Settlement – no court hearing	A settlement that does not necessarily involve both parties appearing before the judge. Includes dismissals initiated by one of the parties for failure to prosecute; reconciliation orders, workers' compensation settlements; compromise and settlement orders. Agreed Orders of Dismissal or Compromise/Agreed Settlements should be reported as 'Compromise/Settlements' not as 'Dismissals'. Typically, the parties have reached an agreement, and the attorneys or parties have brought the order for the judge to sign. Note that a judge may swear in a witness and hear testimony, as long as the party or parties have come before the judge to have a compromise or settlement finalized by order, this is still reported as a Compromise/Settlement – no court hearing, not as a Non-Jury Trial.
3. Court Approved Settlement	The parties have reached an agreement and appear before the judge. The judge signs the agreement order after hearing whatever evidence he/she deems necessary. The judge may swear in witnesses and hear evidence to satisfy the court that the settlement is valid. This swearing in and presentation of evidence does not constitute a Non-Jury Trial.
4. Uncontested/Default	A defendant either chose not to or failed to contest the plaintiff's allegation.
5. Transferred	The removal of a case from the jurisdiction of one court or judge to another by lawful authority. This does not include cases reassigned to another judge within the same judicial district and court, but only those transferred to another district or from circuit to chancery, etc. Always put the judge.
6. Dismissal	An order or judgment rendered by the judge finally disposing of an action, suit, motion, etc., without trial of the issues involved. Terminates the jurisdiction of a trial court before a judgment is reached. Such may be either voluntary or involuntary.
7. Trial-Non-Jury (Bench)	A trial is held before a judge. The party or parties have come before the judge seeking a decision based on the merits of their case. Witnesses and evidence are presented, and the judge renders a final decision in the case. When at least one witness has been sworn under this scenario, the case is to be reported as disposed by Trial – Non-Jury even if the parties reach a compromise or settlement.
8. Trial-Jury	Trial is held before a judge with a jury impaneled. The party or parties appear in court seeking a jury verdict on the merits of their case. Please note that under this scenario once a jury is impaneled, whether they render a verdict or not, the case is to be reported as disposed by Trial-Jury even if the parties reach a compromise or settlement.
9. Other	Any case disposed in a manner not specifically described in one of the other categories.

Multiple Party Dispositions:

If a civil case involves multiple parties, only report one disposition for the case. Once judgments have been reached for all parties, the case should be disposed. The highest-level manner of disposition should be used in the disposition, using the order of ranking listed below. “Trial – Jury” is the highest level and “Other” is the lowest level.

Highest

1. Trial – Jury
2. Trial – Non-Jury
3. Court Approved Settlement
4. Dismissal
5. Transferred
6. Uncontested/Default
7. Compromise Settlement – No Court Hearing
8. Withdrawn
9. Other

Lowest

Before such a case is considered closed, an order of judgment must be entered pertaining to all parties, either jointly or individually.

If any of the dispositions involved Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR), the case disposition should also report that ADR was involved, regardless if that party’s disposition was the highest-level manner of disposition.

For example, if there were 2 parties involved in a case and one party’s manner of disposition was “Trial Non-Jury”, and the second party’s disposition was “Court Approved Settlement” involving ADR, the case would be reported with the manner of disposition as “Trial, Non-Jury”, and the ADR checkbox would be marked as Yes.
