ORDER

Upon consideration of the application for permission to appeal of William Thomas McFarland and the record before us, the application is granted.

The parties are hereby ordered to brief the following issues:

- (1) Did the county election commission have the authority to convene a hearing in response to a citizen's complaint and determine whether a candidate for the position of Circuit Court Judge for the Ninth Judicial District satisfied the constitutional residency requirement set out in article VI, section 4 of the Tennessee Constitution?
- (2) Is the county election commission's determination that the candidate for Circuit Court Judge for the Ninth Judicial District satisfied the constitutional residency requirement a quasi-judicial act that is subject to review pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated section 27-9-101?
- (3) Did the Court of Appeals err in holding that the plaintiff, although not a party to the petition seeking review pursuant to section 27-9-101, nevertheless qualifies as an aggrieved party for purposes of seeking review pursuant to section 27-9-101?
- (4) Did the Court of Appeals err in holding that the plaintiff's failure to seek review of the county election commission's determination pursuant to section 27-9-101 now bars the plaintiff from filing an election contest pursuant to Tennessee Code Annotated section 2-17-101?

The Clerk is directed to place this matter on the docket for oral argument upon the completion of briefing.
