

Memorial Resolution

Honorable Ira “Steve” North, Sr.

October 24, 1941 – December 28, 2020

June 2022

Longtime Nashville attorney and former Davidson County Circuit Court Judge Steve North died peacefully at home in Madison, TN on December 28, 2020. He was 79 years old.

Steve North served Middle Tennessee for over 50 years as a learned judge, fierce advocate, and tireless community servant. His professional life was a never-ending quest for justice with an approach that mirrored his personal dedication to fairness, goodness, grace, and mercy.

Ira Stephen “Steve” North was born in Abilene, Texas, to Ira and Avon North of Lawrence County, Tennessee. His father Ira was the long-time minister of the Madison Church of Christ.

Steve North honed his quick wit and elite oratory skills throughout his childhood and early adult years. He graduated from Madison High School and David Lipscomb College before working his way through Vanderbilt School of Law as the minister of the Spring Hill Church of Christ in Maury County.

Steve North began his legal career at the firm of Howell & Fisher and practiced there until 1974, when he was elected Judge of the Fifth Circuit Court of Davidson County at the age of 32.

Steve North returned to private practice in 1982 as a sole practitioner and was joined by his son Mark North in 1991. They moved the North Law Offices closer to their homes in Madison in 1996, where they practiced together for 20 more years.

Steve North served as a part-time preacher and Sunday School teacher for over 50 years at congregations across Middle Tennessee and Southern Kentucky.

Steve North was a well-respected member of the Madison and Metro Nashville community, known for his work and contributions to nonprofit organizations and local politics.

Steve North served on the Metro Sports Authority, providing his wisdom and unique thoughtful perspective during a time when professional sports in Nashville was growing.

He voluntarily and regularly participated in community meetings and organizations, and was kind, direct, and always helpful.

In addition to his contributions to local politics, Steve North actively helped his wife Jo Ann North become Metro Nashville's and Tennessee's first woman elected to countywide office in 1979, when she was elected to an At-Large seat on the Metro Council. She went on to serve three terms as At-Large Council Member. This was an integral part of his legacy, as well as an historic event for the city and the state.

Steve North was a good man. His generosity, community spirit, kindness, and firm handshake will be greatly missed.

Steve North was a husband, a father, a grandfather, a great-grandfather, an uncle, a brother, an advisor, and a friend.

Steve North is survived by his wife of 58 years Jo Ann North; his brother Phillip L. North (Dale); his sister Dolley North Rennie (Robert); his sons Ira Stephen North, Jr., Don Mark North (Kristin) and David Paul North (Cherri Beth); grandchildren Anthony North (Alison), Karly North, Lara Harris (Will), JoCee North, Lily North and Myra North; and great-grandchildren Carter North, Ian North, Grace Harris and Ashton North; and he was widely known as "Pop".

Steve North was preceded in death by his parents Ira and Avon North and his brother K. Timothy North, M.D.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED by the Tennessee Judicial Conference that the foregoing Memorial Resolution in honor of Ira Stephen "Steve" North, Sr.

here be entered on the minutes of this conference, that a copy be furnished to West Publishing Company for inclusion in Tennessee Decisions and BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies thereof be furnished to members of his family.

Respectfully submitted this 15th day of June, 2022.

JUDGE JOE P. BINKLEY, JR.
PRESIDING JUDGE OF THE 20TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT
