The date, time, and location of the public meeting of the Commission will normally be given in the notice of the vacancy, but may be given in a separate notice. You may visit the website of the Administrative Office of the Courts or call Debbie Hayes at the Administrative Office of the Courts to check the time and location of the public meeting. The hearings, interviews and voting of the Commission are open to the public and the public may arrange through the Administrative Office of the Courts to submit oral or written statements concerning individual applicants.

b. Applicants are notified of the date, time, location, and format of the interview by the Administrative Office of the Courts.

c. Applicants are evaluated in order to fulfill the purposes set forth in the 2016 Tenn. Pub. Acts Chapter 528, §17. The Commission has determined that an integral part of fulfilling its duties includes consideration of at least the following criteria: integrity, impartiality, industry, legal knowledge and ability, legal experience, temperament, and public service. This list is not exhaustive. Each applicant should take care to inform the Commission of the individual items that applicant feels best demonstrate the applicant's qualification for the judicial position sought.

e. Applicants eliminated from consideration for nomination are notified as soon as possible after that decision is made.

f. Typically, the names of three (3) nominees are submitted to the Governor for each vacancy. The nominees are listed in alphabetical order without any indication of preference by the Commission.

g. The names of nominees forwarded to the Governor are made public by the Administrative Office of the Courts. The application packages of those nominees are also forwarded to the Governor for review by the Governor and the Governor's staff.
