Chancellor John Rambo, Chancery Court, First Judicial District will present on the subject of probate and estate ethics and address the ethical ramifications of the attorney in the practice of estate and probate law. Some of the issues covered will include the separate legal concepts of the lawyer's duty of confidentiality, the fiduciary attorney-client privilege, representing clients with diminished capacities, and conflicts of interests which appear all too frequently in the probate practice. Learn how to recognize some of the potential pitfalls in this area before they arise and how to manage your probate practice to avoid ethical mistakes.	Family Law	11:10	12:10	1.0 Family Law CME
