Presenters: : Carol Berz is the Chief Executive Officer of Private Dispute Resolution Services, LLC, a mediation services and training organization headquartered in Chattanooga, Tennessee, and serves as the Chairperson and District 6 Representative for the Chattanooga City Council.

A civil and family mediator, Dr. Berz is listed by the Supreme Court of Tennessee as a Rule 31 Neutral and Trainer in General Civil Mediation, Family Mediation and the special circumstance of Domestic Violence. In addition, Dr. Berz does extensive teaching in both the public and private sectors regarding mediation, law and ethics, and collaborative problem-solving in the areas of health care, labor/management issues and government relations.

Formerly the Director of Forensic Services for Joseph W. Johnson Mental Health Center, and subsequently its Executive Director, Dr. Berz also has served as a visiting professor at the University of Tennessee, Chattanooga, teaching social policy, law and ethics. She is a Board Certified Diplomat in Clinical Social Work, with extensive post-doctoral training in mediation, law, ethics and conflict management system design.

Regina McDevitt is the Chief Operating Officer for the Partnership for Families, Children and Adults. She holds a bachelors degree in Psychology and an M.Ed in Guidance and Counseling. She provides leadership, direction, management and operation for programs that address: domestic violence; supervised visitation, sexual assault; human trafficking; homelessness; housing, elder needs and abuse; foster care, and counseling and has been with agency for 18 years.

For the past 10 years, Regina has served on the board of the Tennessee Coalition against Domestic and Sexual Violence. She served on the Sexual Assault Advisory Committee for Tennessee's Sexual Assault Program Standards and the Tennessee State Family Violence Shelter Advisory Committee. Through her work, she works to ensure that victims across the state have access to services that meet their self-defined needs and increase their safety. She provides guidance and consultation locally on community collaboration, partnering and strategic planning and well as education on issues of violence, trauma informed services and other topics to local groups.
